Weekly News About the Programs of Senior Connections' Mack Love Building

Adventures In Learning

It's hard to believe that the Spring Quarter has almost come to an end. This has been such a successful quarter for all of us—staff, participants, instructors, and volunteers—that we hate to see it end. Thank you to everyone for your continued support, and we hope that you will continue your fun through the upcoming Summer Quarter. Here's what's going on this week:

The speaker for this week is Nancy Addison and her Sing Along with Harp or Guitar program. Lunch is complimentary and sponsored by Blue Cross/Blue Shield of GA. Our sincerest thanks to them for sponsoring this lunch.

Lunch Program for May 27

There will be no speaker next week. Next week signals the end of Terrific Thursdays and time for the extra special treat of our potluck luncheon.

Potluck Luncheon, Thursday, May 27

As mentioned earlier, next Thursday signals the end of Terrific Thursdays for the Spring Quarter, and this means one of my favorite days—potluck luncheon time! If this happens to be your first time with our Terrific Thursdays program, you will definitely enjoy. Everyone brings something delicious, and we all get to share in the good will and great food. We have a sign up sheet at the front desk and request that you sign up as soon as possible, along with noting the delicious dish you will be contributing to this fun afternoon.

Lunch will follow at the Livingston Restaurant in the beautiful Georgian Terrace Hotel. Coming in August, you will be able to enjoy a variety of different kinds of music at the Roswell Cultural Center on August 15, and a trip to Macon on August 24 for a visit to the “Palace of the South”, the Georgia Music Hall of Fame and much more. September brings us an historic tour of Covington, Georgia; where there will be a driving tour of antebellum and neoclassical homes, a visit to the famous courthouse used on “In The Heat of The Night” TV show and more. Gail is going to town on planning great trips! If you would like more information on these trips so you can reserve your spots now, please view the Summer catalog at www.seniorconnectionsatl.org and call Gail Shattah today.

Possible Water Aerobics Class

After Gwyneth’s meeting with the YMCA, we have been presented with a wonderful, fun opportunity to have a water aerobics class. If you are interested in participating in a class like this, please sign up at the front desk with your name and telephone number. Your telephone number is only for Gwyneth’s use and will remain confidential. She will use it to call you if we get enough people to make a class.

Senior Connections Closed in Observance of Memorial Day

Please remember there will be no classes and the office will be closed on Monday, May 31. We will resume normal activities the next day, June 1.

Editor’s Note

You know how sometimes you see “Editor’s Note” in all of our big publications, well, I finally get to do one ☺! There will not be an issue of “The Adventurer” next week, May 27, as the Editor will be at the beach. “The Adventurer” will resume the following week. Have a terrific Memorial Day!!
