Weekly News About the Programs of Senior Connections' Mack Love Building

Adventures In Learning

After a delightful week at the beach, the Editor is back and ready to get things going full swing. Did everyone enjoy the long three day weekend to observe Memorial Day? Hopefully everyone was able to take a moment to honor our past and present troops for all that they have done and are doing for our Country.

Since the calendar has brought us to a new month, and as the song says, "June is busting out all over....", let's get busting; and let you know what is going on this week.

Classes Still Available for Spring Quarter

There are three new classes still to be offered for the month of June, and there are spaces still available. They are as follows:

8090 Online Banking—June 10 from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm taught by Connie Cothran. This class is located at Brookhaven Bank. The cost of this class is $20.

8002 Jewelry Workshop—June 16 from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm here at the Mack Love Building, and taught by Charlotte Thomas. The cost for this class is $20.

8080 Just the Facts: Filling the Blanks on Lineage Society Applications—June 28 from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm taught by Susan Sloan. This is here at the Mack

Love Building, and the cost for this class is $20.

All three of these classes are wonderful opportunities to learn something you may not have had a chance to experience before. Sign up for one or all three! All of these instructors are terrific, and you'll enjoy your time spent in the class. For further enrollment information, please consult the Spring 2010 catalog.

Botanical Gardens Canopy Walk & Chateau Élan/ Mayfield Dairy Trips

There are still a few spaces available if you would like to join Gail tomorrow for the Canopy Walk at the Botanical Gardens. If you are interested, please contact her TODAY to sign up.

There are still four spots open for the trip next Monday, June 7 for the tour of Chateau Élan and Mayfield Dairy. This is always a popular trip so enroll quickly.

If you are even just thinking about going on these trips, do not hesitate because you don't want to miss out on two sure-fire, fun days.

Adventures in Learning Summer 2010 Catalog

Another stellar job is done by our very own Natasa Bilec in putting the Summer catalog together. The catalog is in the mail, and you should be receiving it soon. If you want to get a head start on selecting all of the classes you are enrolling in for the Summer Session, you can view it on line at www.seniorconnectionsatl.org. Remember—you can register for your classes without payment and then make your payment on the day your class begins. Registrations are on a first-come, first serve basis, and accepted up to one week before the class date or until class limit is reached. The exception to this is our Terrific Thursdays program where full tuition is required at the time of enrollment.

Announcing Two Overnight Trips with Travel-Aires

Shhh.....these trips will not actually be advertised until the Fall 2010 catalog, but Gail wants to let the cat out of the bag, and let you know ahead of time. We never could keep a secret when there is great news like this to share with all of you! There will be the trip to Tunica, Mississippi and Memphis, Tennessee on October 4—6, 2010, along with the Charleston Holiday Tour from December 6—9, 2010. Sound like two great trips and a whole lot of fun? It will be; so jot these on your calendar now. For a little more teaser information, check out the flyer at our front desk.

Other Great Trips with Travel-Aires

To finish off June, there will be a trip to the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library & Museum on June 23 to see the exhibit on the photographs of Senator Howard Baker.

Kicking off July with a bang, you can experience the wonders of Arabia in IMAX at the Fernbank Museum on July 7. Visit Atlanta's beautiful, one and only fabulous, Fox Theatre for our very own personal tour on July 26. We are told that our in-depth tour will be guided by someone who had a very "personal relationship" with the building; in other words, if the walls could talk... Lunch will follow at the Livingston Restaurant in the beautiful Georgian Terrace Hotel. Coming in August, you will be able to enjoy the Atlanta Concert Band playing a variety of different kinds of music at the Roswell Cultural Center on August 15. Join in for a trip to Macon on August 24 to visit the "Palace of the South", the Georgia Music Hall of Fame and much more. September brings Fall and an historic tour of Covington, Georgia on September 14; where there will be a driving tour of antebellum and neoclassical homes, a visit to the famous courthouse used on "In The Heat of The Night" TV show and more. If you would like more information on these trips to reserve your spots now, please view the Summer catalog at www.seniorconnectionsatl.org and call Gail Shattah today.
